Foreword

Few students consider the effect of the bell in regulating their daily life. Each day is controlled by bells. We are awakened in the morning to the sound of a bell.

Another bell sends us to school and informs us of the changes of classes. Bells announce lunch time, then remind us to return to classes after lunch. Bells close the school day and begin lengthy telephone conversations. As night draws near, doorbells announce callers. Later in the night other bells send us back to our homes.

In olden days the school bell was more widely used than today. It was rung on all occasions to call the community together. It was tolled when a prominent citizen died and was used as a distress signal.

America's most famous bell, the Liberty Bell, was first cast in London and shipped to America. The first testing proved a fault in casting. The second casting, done in America, also proved defective, and the same metal was used for the third casting. The bell rang on all special occasions until 1835 when it cracked on being tolled at the death of Chief Justice Marshall. Since that time it has remained silent, but its message of freedom and liberty is still ringing in the minds and hearts of all good Americans.

Such freedoms as those announced by the Liberty Bell have been the basis of our school and community life.

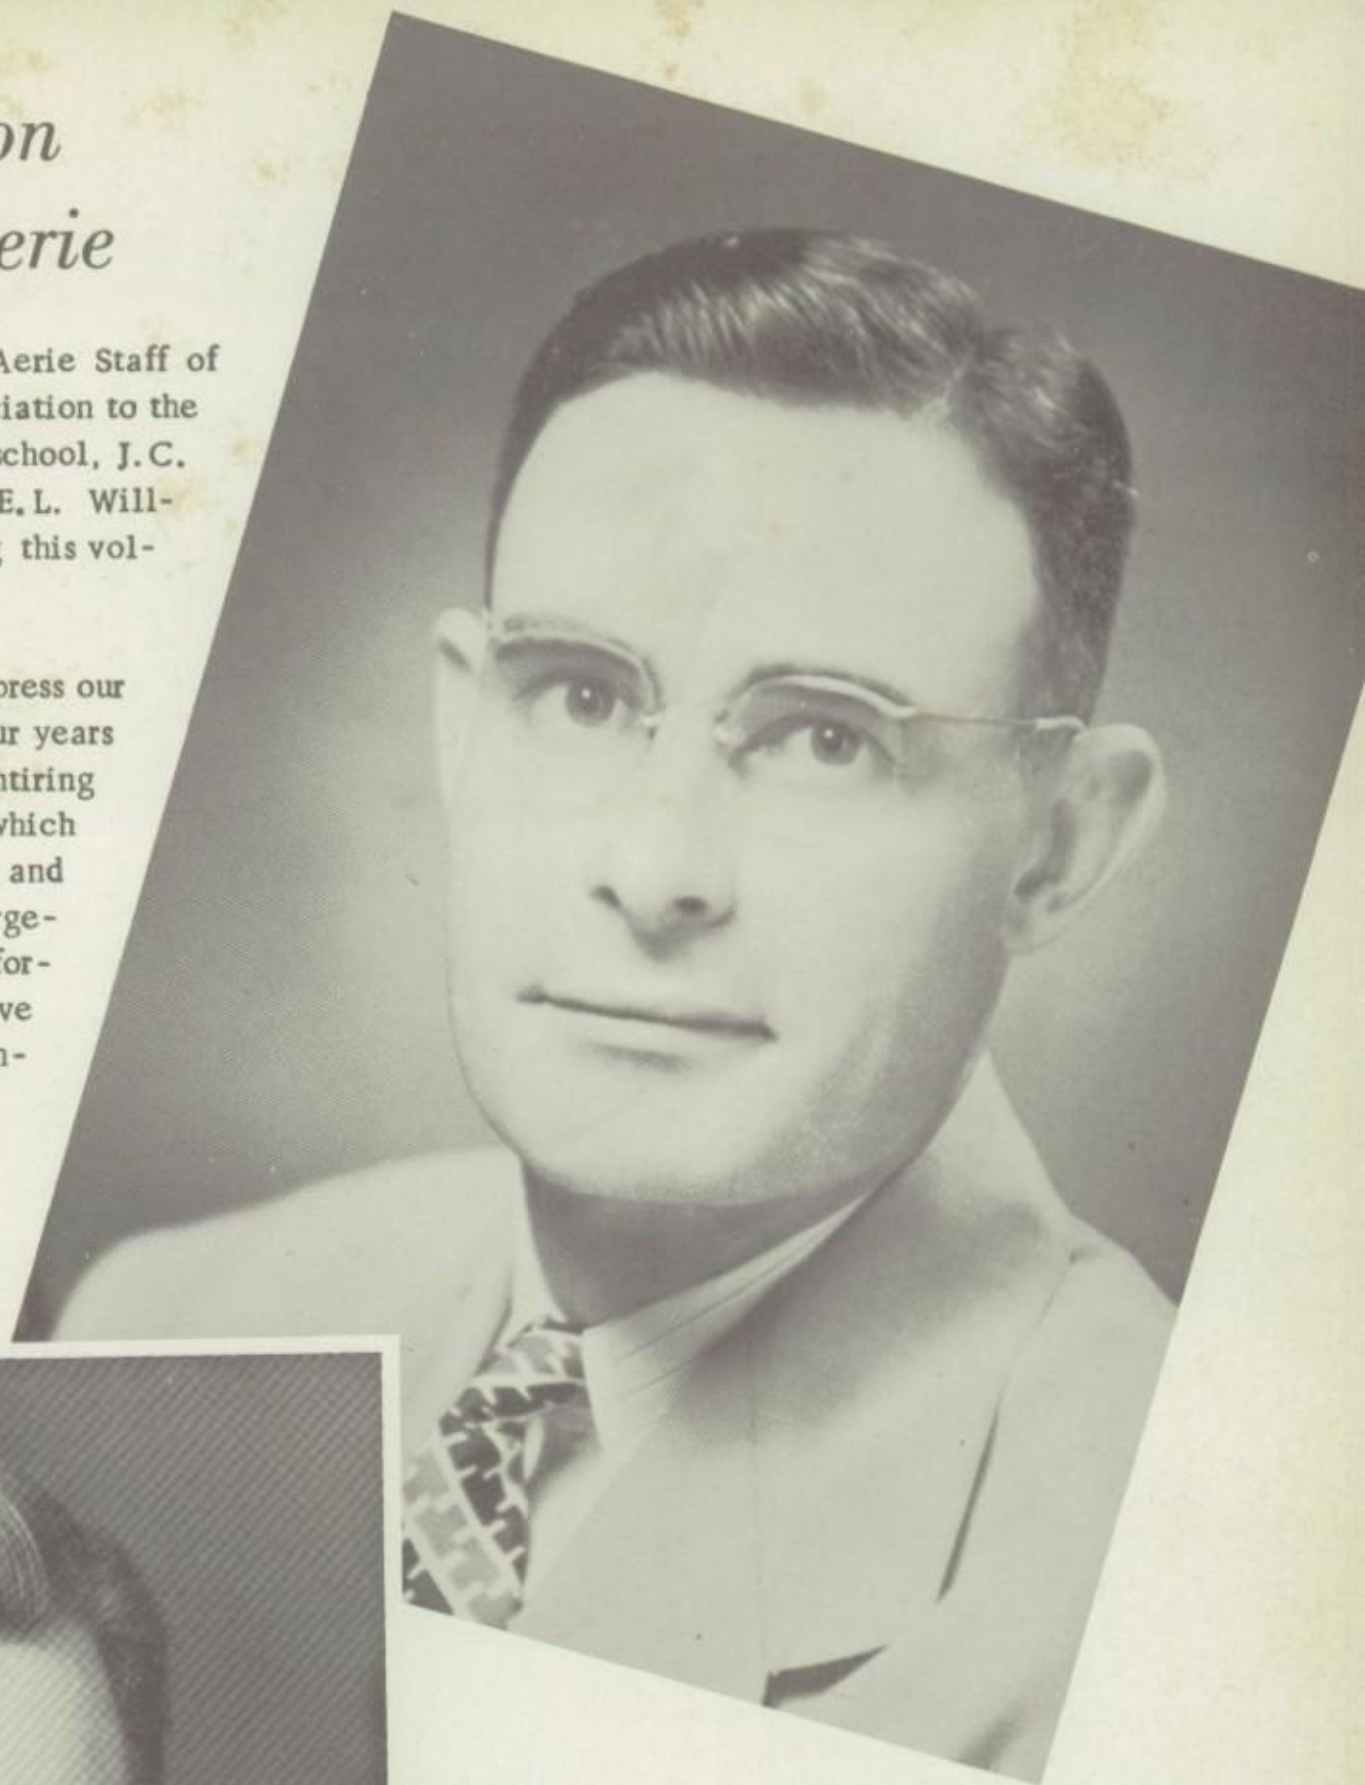

In our 1955-56 Aerie we are attempting to show our school life and how it is controlled by bells.

Dedication of 1956 Aerie

We, the members of the Aerie Staff of 1956, wish to express our appreciation to the administrative officers of our school, J.C. Barnes, Superintendent, and E.L. Williams, Principal, by dedicating this volume of the Aerie to them.

Mr. Barnes, we want to express our deepest gratitude to you for your years of outstanding leadership and untiring efforts. The high standards which exist are due to your supervision and guidance. The students of Georgetown High School will never forget the wonderful work you have done for our school and community.

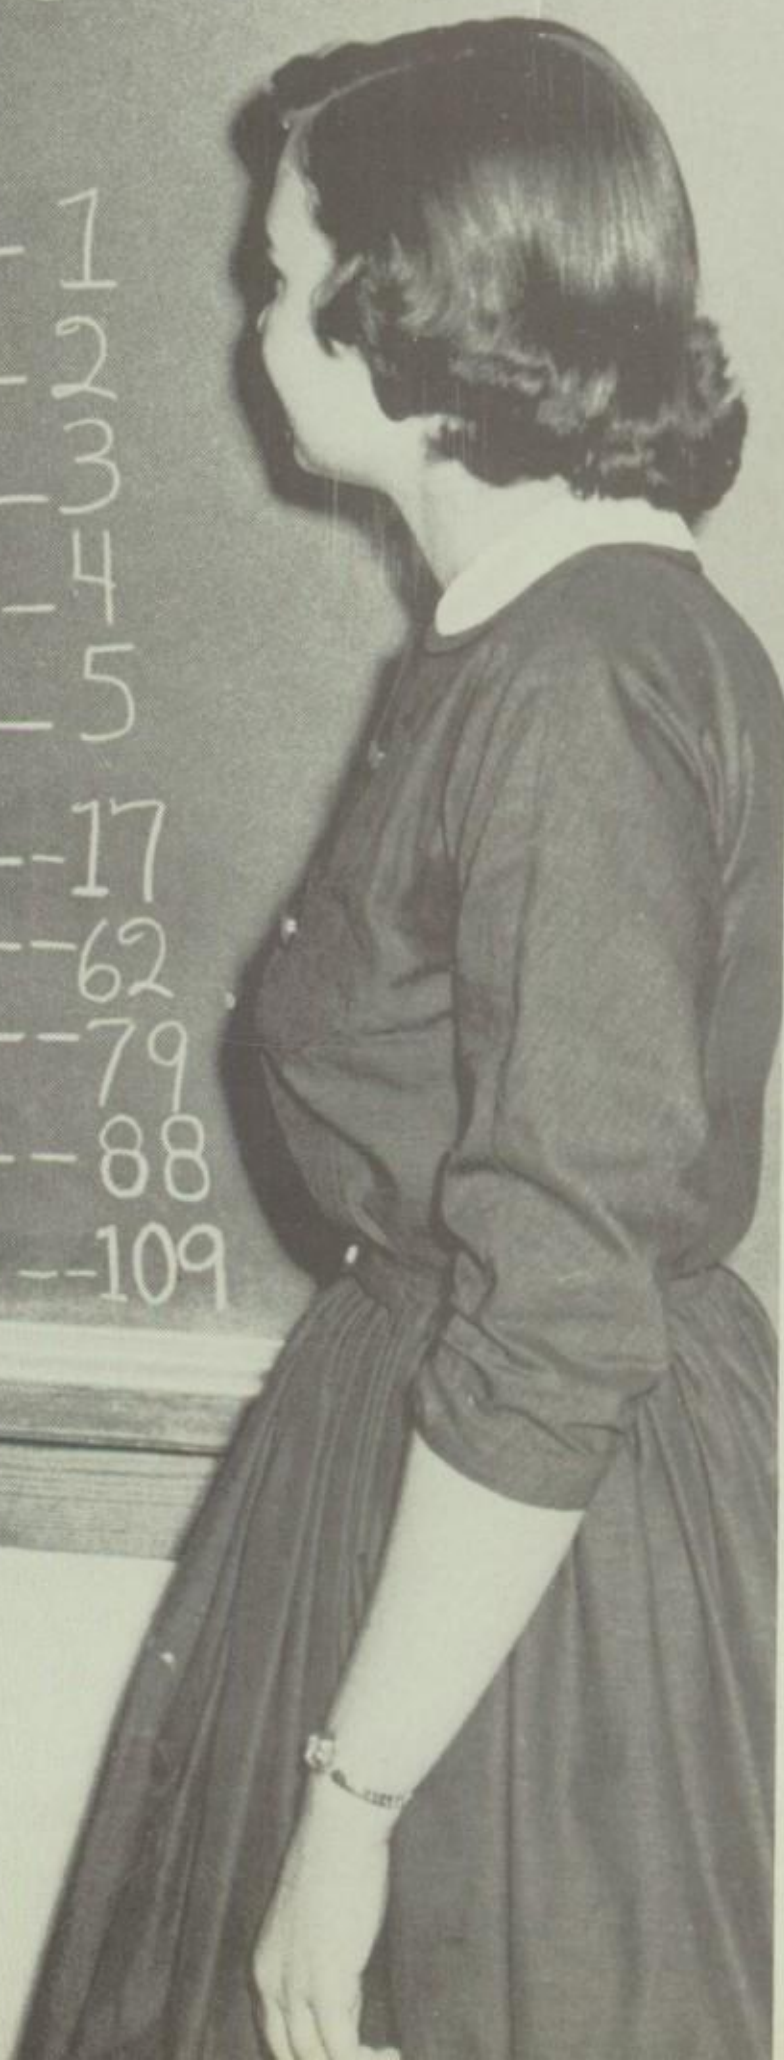

Mr. Williams, we wish to say "thank you" for your love and understanding of the ordinary student. We feel that you are always willing to deal with our problems in a sympathetic, and constructive way. We will remember above all your friendly and good natured attitude. Let us hope that our ideals and growth of character will prove worthy of your example.

Bells, Belles, and Beaus

Bells of the Day

A NEW DAY BEGINS for Fred Dodson as that "great black demon," the alarm clock, announces in its cheery manner that the hours of the night have come to an end, and a new day has dawned.

THE 8:45 BELL REMINDS all students that time has come for the classroom work to begin. K. W. Mickan and Betty Zoch make good use of their study hall, as they complete lessons due later in the day.

"IT'S NOT ALL WORK," agree Jerry Bane and Janice as they take time out from regular classwork to catch up on the latest in jokes.

SCHOOL'S OUT. Ann McKinney and R.J. Mott lose no time in leaving the school and classroom work behind them. Often students remain to take part in extra-curricular activities and organizations, which meet after school hours - on certain days set at the beginning of school.

COKE TIME IS ANY TIME, after 3:30 and Cunningham's Drug Store makes a perfect place for Howard Landry and Joyce Homeyer to relax after a "hard" day in school to discuss the events of the day.

AFTER A HARD DAY AT SCHOOL, Karen Smith enjoys a long telephone conversation with someone whom she hasn't seen for at least two hours. The telephone bell is one of the most "used" of all bells. Almost any time of the day some member of the family is busy talking on the telephone. Most families finish their necessary business dealings before school is out in the afternoon, because it is sometimes difficult to find the telephone idle after that time.

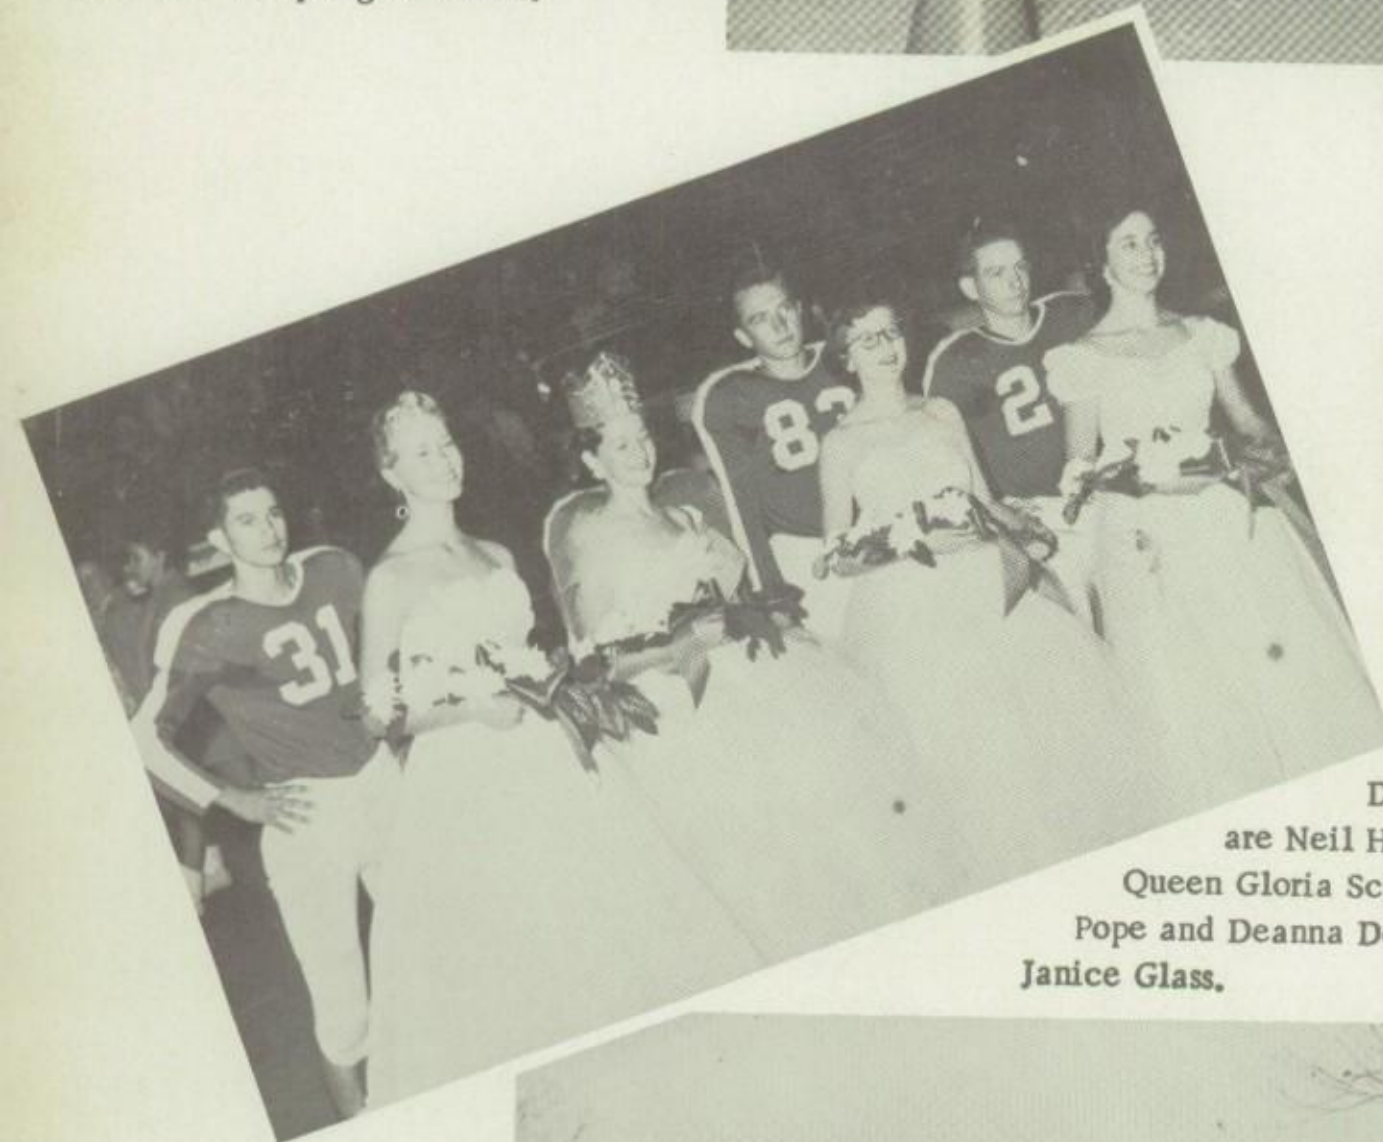

Fall Activities

BILL SPRINGER, THIRD VICE PRESIDENT of the Student Council is in charge of all assembly programs. He is shown making his campaign speech in the spring elections.

GEORGETOWN HIGH SCHOOL CHEERLEADERS in action during the Rosebud game. The six girls did a wonderful job in arousing school spirit. Besides leading in the pep rallies during the week, they made signs and of course were leading yells at the games.

SCHOOL IS OUT and the six school buses of the Georgetown I. S. D. transport rural students to their homes.

HALLOWEEN CELEBRATED IN ASSEMBLY

Clarence Lewis, Enid Anderson, Patsy Gamble, and Johnny Berglund were in "Home Town Halloween," which was presented in assembly for a Halloween program.

FOOTBALL BOYS ENJOY FOOTBALL SUPPER

After a successful football season, the football boys and their dates enjoyed a barbecue given by the parents of the players. ARTIST BETTY SCHMIDT displays her football poster for the Taylor game.

WORKING INDUSTRIOUSLY to get the paper mimeographed on time are Rita McCasland, Carolyn Forehand, Enid Anderson, Martha Miller, Martha Hoffman, Linda Luksa, and C.R. Morgan.

Fall Activities

THE EAGLE, THE HIGH SCHOOL NEWSPAPER, was produced by the students of Georgetown High School and their sponsors, Mrs. Paul Hindelang and Miss Peggy Huddelston. The mimeographed paper was put out twice a month for the first semester. Included in the paper was a feature story, an editorial, a fashion column, a personality of the week, and all of the happenings in and around the high school. Because of difficulties that arose during the second semester the publication of the paper was discontinued.

THE ANNUAL SPANISH SUPPER, sponsored by the P.A.S.F. was a great success this year. About one hundred and thirty students, teachers, and parents enjoyed the supper consisting of tacos, enchiladas, huacamole salad, and iced tea. The club cleared $85 to be used to send delegates to the State Convention. Pat Gamble, Angela Engelbrecht, and Pat Fletcher prepare for SCHOOL DISMISSES because of light snow. On February 2 and 3, Georgetown school students were out of school because of a light snow and sleet. Angela Engelbrecht, Harriet Berglund, and Donna Hausenfluck took notice of the snow in the San Gabriel Park. The students here had not seen snow for about four years.

Spring

SOPHOMORE PARTY

On March 26 the Sophomore Class met at 7:00 for an Easter Parade party in the high school auditorium. In the Easter Hat Style Show, Rosalie Smith modeled the third place winner, made of an oatmeal box with doilies made by her partner, Jerry Bane. Janice Glass displays the second place winner with a hat made from a newspaper with grass ornaments, created by Kermit Schneider. The first place hat was made by Johnny Tombs and worn by Bette Bird. It was made of a doily with a feather and net for trimming. Jerry Bane directed games for a spring meet. At 8:30 the crowd gathered for refreshments and then those who wished to do so danced for an hour.

CLASS SPONSOR

Even Coach Dannelley, one of the class sponsors, enjoyed the making of the hats. He made a very unusual hat for Margaret Bielefeldt. It was made of a coat hanger with flowers decorating the hat.

HONORABLE MENTION

Neal Harris' hat for Linda Andrews was given the honorable mention of the night. It was made of a paper plate topped with flowers and a net veil.

Spring Honors

TWO OUTSTANDING SENIOR GIRLS, Rowena Stone and Donna Hausenfluck enjoy picking blue-bonnets in front of the school. Rowena received the Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow Award by taking a test sponsored by the Betty Crocker Company.

Donna received the D.A.R. Citizenship Award from girls nominated by the senior class and elected by the faculty.

RECEIVING STATE HOMEMAKING DEGREES this year were Martha Ann Hoffman and Rebecca Russell. Each girl made a notebook containing all the work they had done in the seven areas of homemaking. At the Area II Meeting in Austin, their degrees were accepted and on April 18, they received their certificates of award, at the State Convention in Fort Worth.

KATHERINE JACOBS, who has her Chapter Degree, was elected Area Parliamentarian this year. She is an active member of F.H.A., and is shown here with the F.H.A. sponsor, Mrs. Stump.

Junior-Senior Banquet

COUPLES appear amused at a member of the program, Patsy Quested, who performed a pantomime entitled "Cocktails for Two."

"THE MODERN DANCERS" WAS ONE OF THE MAIN FEATURES OF THE BANQUET PROGRAM. The dance consisted of students from Southwestern University.

A COMEDY ACT, an imitation of Elvis Presley, was done by Harold Parsley, another student of Southwestern University. The act was very unusual.

AN INTERESTING CONVERSATION IS ENJOYED at the Junior-Senior Banquet by Martin McClain, Harriet Berglund. Also enjoying the banquet was Tommie Wade and Joyce Whitfield. The futuristic city is shown in the background.

MANY JUNIORS AND SENIORS THOROUGHLY ENJOYED THE PROGRAM at the Junior-Senior Banquet while they watched Freddie Trevino, a Southwestern student, act out the life of a man of about the year 2030.

School Board Dinner

HOMEMAKING III served the School Board in the Homemaking Department on March 7th. Peggy Blackmore cuts the angel food cake while Martha Durrenberger, Lois Holcomb, and Martha Miller wait to serve the cake.

THE SCHOOL BOARD, which consists of Mr. James Manning, Dr. Douglas Benold, Mr. Wallace Evans, Mr. C.E. Gauntt, Mr. C.S. Sanders, Mr. Guy Ewing, Mr. Charles Forbes, and Mr. Houston Pennington, enjoyed the chicken served by Ruth Miller at the supper. Guests at the dinner were Joe E. Barnes, Superintendent, and E.L. Williams, Principal.

IN MRS. STUMP'S ROOM Mr. Evans talks to Dr. Benold while Mr. Manning gets ready to eat.

School Staff

CAFETERIA LADIES, Mrs. John Hancock, Mrs. Oscar Ekdahl, and Mrs. Ed Whitfield are busy preparing a meal for the school cafeteria.

OFFICE HELPERS, Kay Hubbard and Janice Whiteley help Mr. Murdock with the High School files. This is Mr. Murdock's first year in Georgetown High School, where he serves as counselor and advisor.

TWO OF THE BUSIEST PEOPLE in school are Mrs. Girvin and Mrs. Hall, secretaries to Mr. Williams and Mr. Barnes, who work together on the grade sheets, and all office work. Mrs. Hall has worked in her present position for quite a few years. Mrs. Girvin came to work at the high school for the first time this year.

Classes

Senior Class

PLANS FOR GRADUATION are begun by the senior class sponsors, as Miss Agnes Wilcox and Mrs. Frances Springer try a senior gown on Coach Fritz Stelzer.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS relax in a shady nook in the yard of the Marvin Hodges. President Don Parker explains a photographic gadget to the other officers, Linda Luksa, treasurer, Rowena Stone, secretary, Gloria Schmidt, social chairman, Donna Hausenfluck, reporter, and C.R. Morgan, vice president.

Seniors

THE SENIOR CLASS and its sponsors were honored at a luncheon given by the Woman's Missionary Society of the First Baptist and the mothers of seniors belonging to the Baptist Church. Each year the church gives this luncheon on the theme of Christian Education. Principal Everette Williams gave the invocation and Rev. Bob Mitchell gave a brief talk on The Place of Christian Education in a Young Person's Life.

Mrs. Shirley Dedear and Donna Hausenfluck presented the special music at the luncheon.

A TEA, HONORING five of our high school seniors and an Austin High senior was given by Mrs. John Gillett.

A UNION CARBIDE SCHOLARSHIP was awarded to Martin McClain, one of the 800 finalists in the National Merit Scholarship Test. Donald Barrington received a Naval ROTC Scholarship, having competed with students from all over the United States.

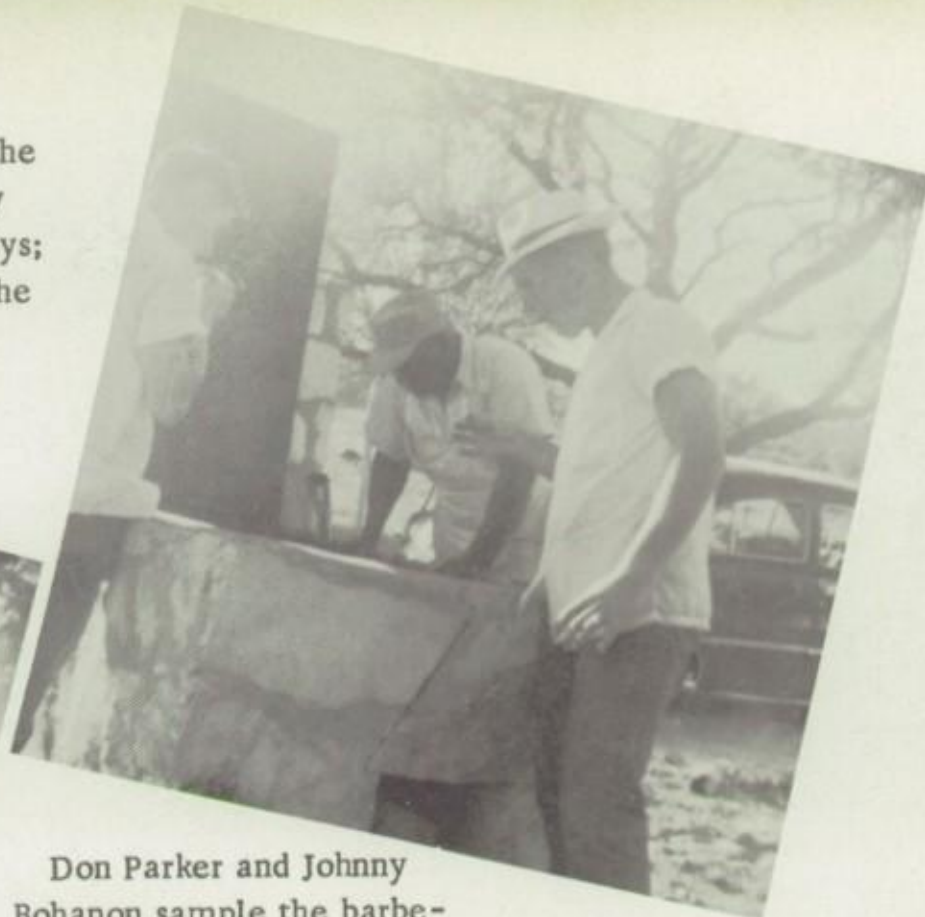

Class Activities

SPRING SOCIALS were plentiful for the Senior Class. The calendar included: a dance at the Country Club, given by Gilbert Bredthauers; a barbecue given by the James Lackeys; a ranch party at the Hawes's ranch, and a boat party on the Commodore Paddle Boat at Green Shores on Lake Austin.

Teachers also enjoy the Ranch party. Mrs. Springer and Miss Wilcox wait their turn to be served.

Don Parker and Johnny Bohanon sample the barbecue prepared by Ernest Wilson at the Ranch Party.

Thirty-one members of the class of '56 started to school together in 1944 and were taught by Miss Annie and Miss Hefner.

SENIORS EAT AN EARLY BREAKFAST at Green Shores Lodge at the boat party. They also enjoyed a chicken barbecue supper, then later, dancing and swimming.

SUMMARY OF PRE-DISTRICT GAMES

GEORGETOWN EAGLES' SUCCESS in pre-district games is evident by the scores. Out of five games played, they lost only to Elgin, Burnet, Round Rock, McGregor, and Granger were defeated respectively. The Eagles scored a total of 138 points in pre-district games, while their opponents only scored 39.

The team has shown unified action in their playing. In the backfield Wilford Bane and Jerry Bane, Milton Denham, and Ernest Kimbro have led the scoring. Their success was due to the blocking and tackling done by the linemen.

NATIONAL THESPIANS INITIATE NEW MEMBERS

Twelve new members were initiated into National Thespian on May 17 at a banquet at L & M cafe. The initiation took place after a meal served to the old members, the new ones, and the sponsor, Mrs. Springer.

Members of Soc'n' Buskin that were initiated are: Janice Glass, Gretchen Rath, Wilford Bane, Johnny Berglund, Mary McCoy, Ronald Woodfin, Norman Bouffard, Sandra Munson, Clarence Lewis, Don Parker, June Burkhart, and Kay Hubbard.

Following this, was a meeting of Soc'n' Buskin at which a student directed play was presented and refreshments were served afterward honoring the new initiates.

Soc 'n' Buskin

THE ONE-ACT PLAYS, presented by Soc'n' Buskin and sponsored by the Junior Class, were given on December 16, 1955, for the purpose of raising funds for the Junior-Senior Banquet.

IN "JUDGE LYNCH", Ed Joplin, played by Norman Bouffard, tells his wife and mother, Angela Engelbrecht and Martha Hoffman, about the gruesome lynching he has just witnessed. Wayne Elkins, the stranger, listens intently to this story.

IN "TWO CROOKS AND A LADY", Mrs. Sims-Vane, a paralytic, played by Janice Glass, is assisted by her companion, Miss Jones, portrayed by Harriet Berglund. June Burkhart, in the role of Lucille, who tries to steal Mrs. Sims-Vane's diamond necklace. Other characters in the play were Ronald Woodfin, Dru Kattner, and Edward Gauntt.

STAGE CREW, Below: members of the stage crew, Clifford Lundquist and K. W. Mickan, set up the scenery for "Judge Lynch."

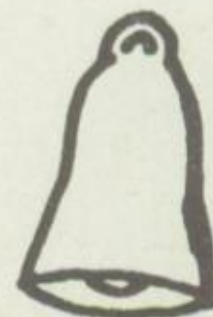

MA AND PA KIRBY, Linda Luksa and Martin McClain, with their children, Caroline and Arthur, played by Mary McCoy and Roy Lee Adams, begin "The Happy Journey" to Camden to visit the married daughter, Gretchen Rath. Butch Johnson acts as stage manager. Of these three plays, this was chosen best by the critics.

THE ALL-STAR CAST from the One-Act Play Night are writing their names on the auditorium wall. They are Norman Bouffard, Linda Luksa, Martin McClain, Mary McCoy, Janice Glass, and Roy Lee Adams. Linda and Martin were best actress and actor.

THE SPEECH AND DRAMA class presented five plays for their final grade in drama. Two of the plays were directed by students in the class and acted by the younger members of Soc 'n' Buskin. These plays were cuttings from "The Curtain" and "No Count Boy." The other three plays were directed by Mrs. Springer and acted by members of the class. These three plays were cuttings from "The Valiant," "Lady of Dreams," and "I Remember Mama." This is a scene from "I Remember Mama." The scene takes place in the kitchen of their home. Mama, Donna Housenfluck, and Papa, Clifford Lundquist, are at either end of the table. The children are Dagmar, Barbara Knauth, Katrin, Angela Engelbrecht, Christine, Gloria Schmidt, and Nels, Billy Miller, who is hidden behind Dagmar. Dagmar holds the cat, Uncle Elizabeth, who takes an important part in the play. The plays were presented in Speech and Drama class, and anyone who wanted to come was invited. All the plays were given in sets made by the members of the casts, and all the characters were in make-up and costume.

MAJORETTES AND DRUM MAJOR:

Margie Cagle, Freddie Sanders, Peggy Blackmore, and Gussie Valentine.

gh Eagle Band

Divisions

MEMBERS OF THE BAND work hard the entire year. During football season they have to perfect both the music and formation for the weekly half-time shows. In the spring the band as a whole prepare for the annual contest held in Waco. Individual members of the band participate in solo and ensemble numbers also.

BAND MEMBERS, Enid Anderson, Gretchen Rath, Freddie Sanders, David McLaughlin, Martha Cloud, John Cloud, Mary Ann Jones, Kay Covey, Rosalie Smith, Zara Reid, Helen Mercer, Barbara Hancock, Peggy Blackmore, Don Todd, Pat Gamble, Wayne Elkins, Janet Steelman, Alice Valentine, Catherine Anderson, Jo Ann Hausenfluck, Melvin McLaughlin, and Margie Cagle, realize that practice is necessary for perfection.

THE EAGLE BAND'S HALF-TIME show at the Granger game was outstanding. The Austin American Daily Paper described the show as follows-----" The blue and white musical aggregation put on one of the best half-time shows witnessed in central Texas in sometime. They presented a series of melodies aided by four small spot lights on the field to recognize each section of the band. The field lights were cut off during the colorful performance. "

The Coronation of the 1955-56 Band Sweetheart

Donna Hausenfluck, Band Sweetheart for 1955- 56, was presented at the half-time of the Georgetown-Burnet football game on September 9, 1955. Donna, a Senior, was chosen by popular vote from several other candidates from the top four grades. As Band Sweetheart, Donna marched with the band at the half-time shows during the entire football season and accompanied them on trips.

AWARDS GIVEN STUDENTS OF 1956

Early in the fall a faculty committee met and decided on a plan for presenting students with awards for scholastic and extra-curricular work. Letter "G" Awards were given to students that had done outstanding work in extra-curricular activities, while medals were awarded to students with the highest average in one particular subject.

1956 was the first year for this award presentation, and it is planned to be an annual practice.

Election Campaign Posters

ONE OF THE MAIN ATTRACTIONS of the Student Council Spring Elections is the campaigning carried on by each of the candidates. The halls of both the first and second floors of the main building and the gym are lined with posters containing tricky slogans and gay colors. The signs vary in size, shape, and fashion, each having its own original ideas.

This year the Aerie Staff picked five of the best posters and the candidates who made them and have pictured them in our yearbook.

The five posters selected, reading down the page and left to right, were those made by Betty Schmidt, Sandra Munson, and Ruth Miller, who were candidates for cheerleader, June Burkhart, one of the three candidates for treasurer, and Ronna Lee Ericson, also a candidate for cheerleader.
